What's that?

I don't know it either. All I know is that a part of our money got deducted towards the Income Tax.

We work so hard to earn but we end up paying taxes to the Government. Not fair!!!

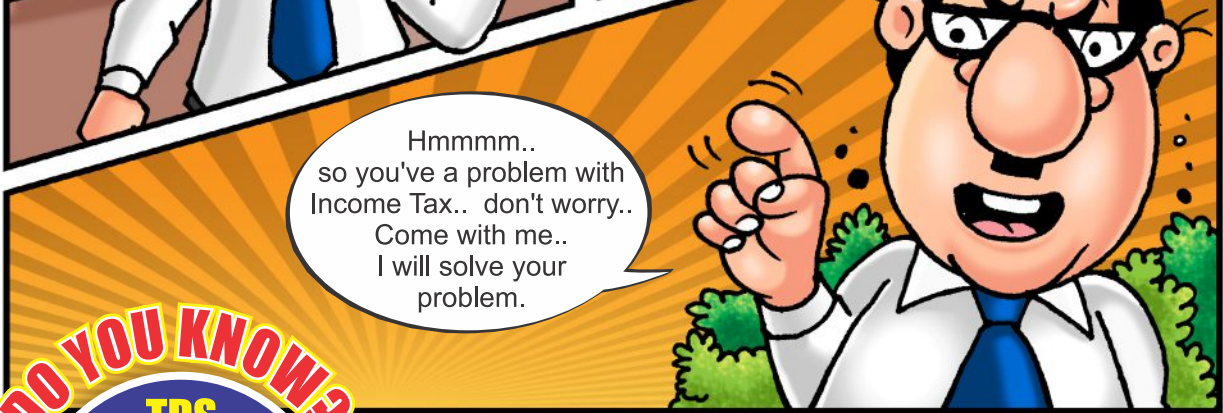

What's the matter Motu Patlu.. Why do you look sad?

Oh, so glad that we met you Jaankaari Babu.

We're so tired paying Income Tax on everything.. If there is a tax on Samosa too, what will I eat then.. Buhuhu...

Hmmm.. so you've a problem with Income Tax.. don't worry.. Come with me.. I will solve your problem.

DO YOU KNOW?

Education, schools, books, uniform and other facilities are made available with the money we pay as taxes.

Of course, the government keeps us equipped with latest weapons and updated technology to make sure that our enemies don't even dare look at us.

The Income Tax contributed by us has made our advancement in the fields of Information Technology, Rocket science, Space research etc possible.

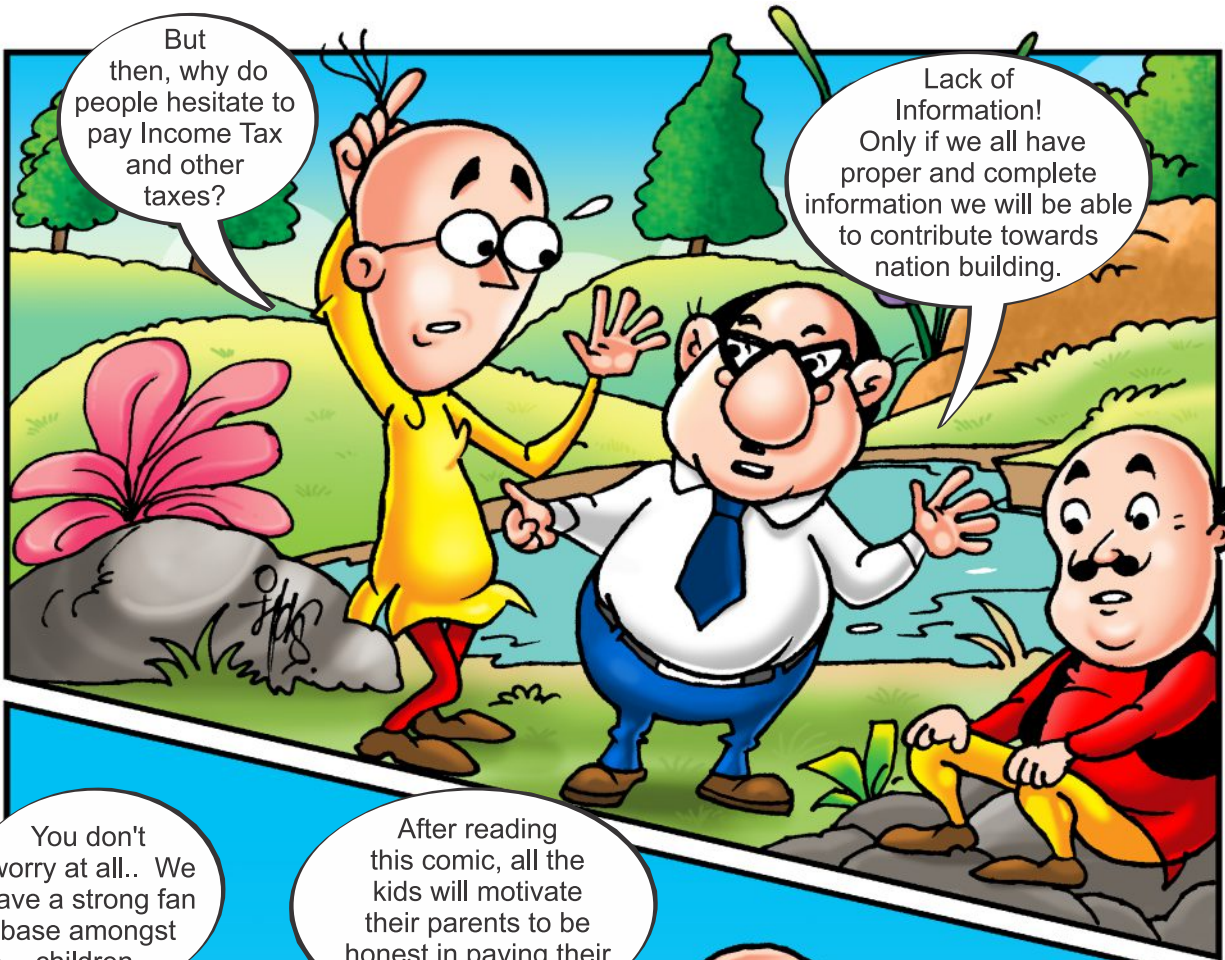

You know, such an expensive defense system is possible with our Income Tax and other taxes.

You're right.

DO YOU KNOW?

Defence research and all advanced space innovations are made possible with our tax money.

But then, why do people hesitate to pay Income Tax and other taxes?

Lack of Information!
Only if we all have proper and complete information we will be able to contribute towards nation building.

You don't worry at all.. We have a strong fan base amongst children.

After reading this comic, all the kids will motivate their parents to be honest in paying their Income Tax.

Did you know?
India is celebrating 75
years of Independence and the Income Tax Department has always been an active participant in nation
building.

Now on,
I'll make sure to buy
samosas against a tax paid invoice, so that the government gets
its right share
of tax.

Wonderful!
Means our Motu will be one real contributor
to the nation building
exercise.

Hey Jhatka,
how're you
feeling now?
Still having fever?

Well, I'm perfectly fine now. If the government hospital was not there, then God knows what would have happened..

If all citizens pay their due taxes on time, our country will achieve greater heights.

Motu, Patlu
would you like to say something to your fans and followers?

Let go of all your worries and laziness, pay your
